A B O U T S U Z A N N E

Suzanne Delawar is widely accepted as one of the nation's youngest celebrity photographers. Her photographs have been published internationally in magazines and media platforms such as Netflix, The Ellen Degeneres Show, Disney, Harper's Bazaar, Brides Magazine and more.

Suzanne was born in Orlando, Florida to an American mother and a Jamaican father. At the age of three she moved to Davie, Florida (approx. 20 minutes from Miami) with her parents and sister. At a young age Suzanne's father, Winston Delawar —also a photographer—noticed her innate abilities and took her under his wing – handing Suzanne her first camera and bringing her to assist him on shoots at just 13 years old. That first camera served as a key to unlocking Suzanne's imagination and igniting her passion for photography.

By the age of 14, Suzanne started photographing weddings with her own team learning the value of leadership & teamwork. As a teenager still in high school, her dad spoke to the school principal who allowed her to leave classes early to shoot on set of "Kourtney & Khloe Take Miami", a popular TV Show on E! Entertainment. On set, she captured portraits of The Kardashians throughout the day that would later be used for press, TV and other outlets.

At 16, Suzanne started shooting press events throughout Miami. Eager to gain experience, she dedicated her time to countless photo shoots and internships, allowing her to build her portfolio—and network—capturing diverse and high quality shots of celebrities at these events while also learning as much as she could from Fashion & Portrait Photographers she looked up to. (Andre Rowe, a commercial photographer & lighting expert, Justin Rivera specializing in fashion portraits, editing & posing, and Steve experienced in commercial work.)
